OUR FIRST MAY SALE—

TO BEGIN MONDAY—TOMORROW—AND CONTINUE FOR ONE WEEK ONLY

IN ACCORDANCE with our usual costume of offering our patrons an opportunity of procuring seasonable garments, in the very beginning of the season, at prices they cannot afford to overlook, we will, beginning tomorrow, inaugurate a one-week sale that for real value-giving is unparalleled in the mercantile history of this city.

It affords you a rare opportunity of securing these handsomely made, pure linen suits, dresses, white wool serge and linen coats and all linen skirts at the following greatly reduced prices:

One lot of about fifty Linen Suits; in Tans, Whites and a few Greys and all sizes. They formerly sold for from $10 to $12, during this sale $5.00

About 20 Silk Serge Dresses, representing the very height of fashion in these seasonable garments that formerly sold for $25. During this one week's sale $16.50 your choice.

One lot of fifty pure linen coats, an ideal garment for automobile riding or a summer outing. at $12 and $14.50, but during this sale will reduce each one to $5.98

We have about 25 Foulard Dresses. All are most handsomely made and the most seasonable creations. They are regular $15 and $16.50 values, but during this sale, will be sold for the one price of $9.98

Fifty pure Linen Dresses; in White, Tan and Pongee, handsomely trimmed in Baby Irish Crochet. Regular $7.50 and $8.50 values, to be sold at $4.68

Some are plain semi-fitted, others have belts. We considered them good values $5.98

We Would Advise Early Selection

WEDDING OF MUCH INTEREST LAST NIGHT.

A wedding of much local interest, which took place last night at the parsonage of the Gadsden Street Methodist church, the Rev. Dr. J. A. Peterson officiating, was that of Miss Maud Armstrong and Mr. Rupert Boyett. Mr. and Mrs. Boyett left last night for Los Angeles, where they will make their future home.

The wedding was very quiet, only the bride's mother and brother and a few friends being present.

The bride wore a pretty and stylish traveling gown of tan and hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyett have many friends in Pensacola who wish them all happiness.

HAVE RETURNED TO MOBILE AFTER PLEASANT VISIT.

Mrs. Frank Hatcher and children and Miss Aline Ollinger, of Mobile, who have been spending a short time with the family of Capt. Ferguson, have returned home.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. Tom Rozler, who has been spending some time in Slocum, Ala., has returned home.

Having Just Closed a Successful Auction Sale

We are going to slaughter the prices on the remaining part of our jewelry stock. Our store will be closed Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for the purpose of rearranging and marking down stock. We are determined to retire from the jewelry business and this stock must be sold regardless of cost or former value.

Beginning Thursday morning at 9 o'clock we will start the greatest Slaughter Sale of Jewelry that has ever been known to the buying public.

Tuesday and Wednesday's papers will give full particulars concerning the Sale. Watch and wait and don't fail to be on hand Thursday morning. Remember, everything will be sold regardless of cost.
